Dean, Lackawanna in Bowl Games

Valley of the Sun and Salt City Bowl Feature NEFC Squads

For the second time in its brief history, the Northeast Football Conference will have two teams playing in bowl games. Dean and Lackawanna will play in games Saturday. The same teams appeared in bowl games in 2008.

The Bulldogs, the nation's 11th-ranked team and 7-1, will play #18 Glendale (Ariz.) Community College in the 31st annual Valley of the Sun Bowl Saturday in Phoenix. The Valley of the Sun Bowl is the oldest continuous NJCAA football bowl game. Glendale enters the game with an 8-3 record. The bowl appearance will be the fourth for Dean. The Bulldogs last appeared in the 2009 Valley of the Sun Bowl, falling 10-9 to Glendale.

Lackawanna, ranked 19th, will play #14 Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College in Saturday's Salt City Bowl in Hutchinson, Kan. Hutchinson CC is 8-3. Live video streaming of the game will be available at www.ihigh.com/hcc/. Lackawanna will be playing in its ninth bowl game. The Falcons are 2-6 in those games but defeated Ellsworth Community College 34-20 in the 2010 Graphic Edge Bowl.
